WHAELING, W. VA., APRIL 27, 1888 Marriage and Divorce.

Marriage and Divorce.

A Brooklyn man is asking to be divorced from his wife, to whom he was married thirteen years ago. Being but a school boy, he fell in love with a servant girl employed where he boarden, and without anybody's advice and consent except the girl's, secretly married her. It is to be presumed that the girl had a pretty face. Homely women the girl had a pretty face. the girl had a pretty face. Homely women have little of the world's mischief to answer for. The young fool soon tired of his wife, "for several years they have not lived together," and now they are in the divorce court, adding to the increasing army of dis-contented people who ask the law to relieve

These young people had little prospect of happiness when they became man and wife. They came together from different planes of life, with different training, tastes and associations. He flattered her and painted a picture of such a life as she had never hoped to live. She was no longer to be maid, but mistress with a place in society. It was the old dream soon dispelled. No philosopher can tell that poor girl half she knows now, but she had to learn it. She would have believed nobody when he was pressing her hand, looking love into her eyes and her heart, gilding the horizon of her hope with the pure gold of a lover's hot imagination. Men and women are the same in this; they will not take experience at second hand without cost; they prefer to have their own, paying for it the price of bitterness, perhaps diagrace.

The Brigand at Moretti's last night.

"We are the soul of the opera," said an Italian brigand at Moretti's last night. Our art was handed to us from the mas for a ting in sour from the mas flow of that article down his high priced throat did not interfere with his articulation. A gr-up of dusky singers gathered around him and he cominued: "Of course we can act. Next week we go home to release of onext fall. In a few weeks you will lear of an English nobleman, attacked and carried off to a horrible cave in the life and the price of the price of bitterness, perhaps diagrace.

We read of very elegant gentlemen marrying woman of low degree and turning them into lovable companions and queens of society, but nobody places faith in fairy tales.

To Physicians.

We do not find fault, reproach or condemn the practice of any regular physician—this is cot un mission—but we do claim if he were to add Perusa to his preceptions as directed in our book on the "Ills of Life" (and faraished gratuitously by all druggists), he would cure all his patients. "Oswoo, Potter County, Pa, Dr. Harman—Dear Sir. The small this mother and sisters move, makes a good aginning in life. And the girl who makes like choice starts where she can stand set, the equal of her husband's equals, apologies, no excuses, no mortifying pilications. It is not dividing society classes or circles to recogniza the control of the contro a division does exist; and if there ever is time when the world is to be faced as it is not as it ought to be, that time is when two people join their hands and their fortune in the solemn bonds of wedlock. In a recent letter to the Ohio State Forestry Association, Mr. John G. Whittier says that he is pained and indignant at the wanton destruction of forests in the New England States.

Judge Gresham's unpretentious two-story house at Indianapolis is surrounded by a fine grove of natural forest trees. His daughter Kate has some artistic talent, while his son Otto is a lawyer of ability.

Lytton Sothern, son of the tamous comedian, E. A. Sothern, made his first appearance at Glasgow on the 30th ult., taking the character of Lord Dundrary. He is said to be a feeble imitation of his father. The Khedive of Egypt has voluntarily given up $15,000 a year of his civil list, to be devoted to the payment of the smaller indemnity claims. He will still receive $735,000 a year, however, and the members of his family $600,000 a year more.

The last literary work performed by the late Rev. Derwent Coleridge—the last surviving child of the poet—was the completion of the edition of his father's poems which his sister had begun. Though a writer of taste and ability his contributions to literature were lew.

England last year imported enough German beer to pay customs duties of $30,000. Mr. Labouchere has long been an advocate of the use of Ferman beer by Englishmen on the ground that, discouraging the use of spirits, it would promote temperance.

The Chinese have some queer medicines, as this, for instance, known as the five poisons: Dried snakes, polverised, 1 cz; wasps and their nests, \(\frac{1}{2}\) cz; centipedes, 3 cz; scorpions, 6 cz, and toads, 10 cz. These mixed up with honey, and made into pilla.

Hypozotic acid is a new French explosive, which, instead of replacing various atomic portions of cellulose, as in guncotton, or the alcohols, as in nitro-glycerine, by nitrogen, does this in compounds of petroleum. The result is a vastly more powerful explosive.

Some samples of cheap coffee analyzed by the directors of the Paris Municipal Laboratory were found to contain the following substances. Bread-dust, ground acorns, red earth, vermicelli, plumbago, flour, caromel, sand, brickdust, ashes, ground peas and beans, carrots, figs, beetroot, sawdust, red ochre and mahogany shavings. Some more expensive specimens differed from this only in having chicory added to this appetiting mixture.

Square-Dealing ONE-PRICE Clothing House

We are Exactly One Year Old To-Day. Just one year ago to-day we opened a Clothing Store in Wheeling. We then presented our ideas and plans for your consideration, and invited an examination and a trial.

Our greatest aim was to mark a CRISIS in the Clothing trade of Wheeling. We did not build upon the weak and sandy foundation of "many prices," but planted our standard upon the firm and solid rock of

STRICTLY UNE PRICE!

AND No Deviation. Linked with this we considered

AIR AND SQUARE DEALING f equal importance; so we incorporated it It in our motto.

Or ONE PRICE system met with considerable opposition in the start, and many arguments were necessary to implantit in your favor. But the masses have already learned to recognize it as the only true and strictly hoporable method of business, and already see the advantages arising therefrom.

One year has passed since we opened, and our host of oustomers and friends are as coundless as the sir. If the crowds that saily throng our store are any indication of success, we feel confident that there is no attraction so powerful as that of

Magnetic Merit! Our business development in Wheeling is but the result of doing the "SQUARE THING" by the people, and keeping all our Our Spring Stock comprises the largest
